From Your President

Greetings for 2020,

We are on our way to a fun and productive new chapter in our guild. At future meetings, I encourage us to greet all visitors, to silent our cellphones, and to listen to anyone who has the floor and is speaking into the microphone. It's no fun to be in front of people and as you look out into the crowd all you can see are people talking, laughing and paying no attention. I also encourage each and every one of us to take on more charitable projects, i.e., making receiving blankets, lap quilts, walker caddies, bibs, etc. We can all do something. Let's be a group of people who show this community what we are rather than telling people what we "sometimes" do.

Many of you may remember my mother, Barbara Priest, who was active in this guild. She also taught classes, learned and shared new quilting techniques, went on many road trips and was always up for a retreat. I saw what community meant to her as it gave her a purpose and a mission in her retirement. This is one of the stories she had in her files (author unknown) that I think is worth putting in writing again.

Do You Belong?

Are you an active member, the kind that would be missed?
Or are you just contented that your name is on the list?
Do you attend meetings and mingle with the flock?
Or do you stay at home and criticize and knock?
Have you even asked to serve on a committee you could pick?
Or do you leave the work to just a few and talk about the clique?
So come to meetings often and help with hand and heart.
Don't be just a member, dig in and do your part.

I am looking forward to serving as your President but I can't do it alone. I want and need your help to make this a successful year.

D-Ann

Tall Pines Quilt Guild Minutes of Meeting

Tall Pines Quilt Guild
Meeting Minutes
Monday, January 6, 2020
University Heights Baptist Church

Outgoing President, Martha Wilson, called the meeting to order, welcomed all members and guests, and introduced our incoming President, D-Ann Gilmore.

D-Ann talked about her goals for the Guild this year; mainly her wish for the Guild to be more involved in charity projects for the community. She compared this year's and previous years' participation in charity projects, and found the numbers to be down.

Helen Belcher, our Parliamentarian, called up the new officers, and they were voted on and approved. President – D-Ann Gilmore, Vice-Presidents – Ashley Buehring and Kimberly Carney, Secretary – Maggie Smith, and Treasurer – Dorothy Wolverton

Banking privileges will be rescinded for our out-going President, Martha Wilson, and the out-going Treasurer, Kay Ohendalski. The banking privileges will pass to our new President, D-Ann Gilmore, and the new Treasurer, Dorothy Wolverton.

The Standing Committees were introduced: Charity- Robin Rodriguez ;Donation Quilt – Diane Carrington, Elaine Robinson, Dorothy Wolverton, Jean Bradley, Grace Burzynski and D-Ann Gilmore; Door Prizes – Melanie Burleson (with Lynda Muzyka as backup); Fun Exchange – Doris Collins; Hospitality/Refreshments – Grace Burzynski; Library – Rebecca Lewis; Membership – Cathy Wilson; Newsletter – Diane Carrington; Publicity & Special Events - Martha Wilson; Scholarship – Judy Oliver; Show and Tell – Tasha Fry; Sunshine & Shadows –Elaine Robinson; Webmaster – Diane Carrington; Workshop Coordinator – Helen Belcher.

The December minutes were printed in the newsletter. Ashley Buehring made a motion to accept the minutes as printed and Martha Wilson seconded the motion. Motion passed.
A motion was made by Ruth West to accept the Treasurer's Report, and was seconded by Dorothy Wolverton. Motion passed.

The January birthdays were asked to stand and be recognized. They were each given a gift by Jeanette Allen.

Cathy Wilson recognized and welcomed new members by name.

Helen Wilson and her husband displayed a donation quilt and sold raffle tickets to raise money for "Run for the Son", a Christian Motorcycle Association. The raffle will be held after February.

The amendments to the By-Laws will be printed in this month's newsletter, which will then be voted on at February's meeting. Emails explaining the changes will be sent out to all members. D-Ann urged us to read the emails thoroughly and ask any questions we may have before the meeting. We will have a speaker and a program, and need to make the voting a quick process. There have been several changes to the Standing Rules; which have been approved.: 1) No more yearbook 2) Guild members who do programs fee will be raised from $75-$150 3) President's gift will be bought by the Treasurer 4) There is a $5 increase in yearly Guild dues.

Kathy Hazlewood, Director of Care Center of Huntsville, gave an inspiring talk about how Care Center impacts our community, and expressed her gratitude for our support of the Care Center, for the annual baby shower, and the quilts made by our Charity Bee. Everyone that gets an ultrasound is gifted with one of our quilts and Kathy expressed how much their clients appreciate them.

Kimberly Carney and Ashley Beuhring talked about our upcoming programs and workshops for February, March and April. There is also a "Fabulous Rug" class this coming Saturday, January 11th at 10 am. For information, call Diane Ramon at (936) 355-4585.

Robin Rodriquez said the next Charity Bee is at 10 am on Tuesday, January 21. Diane Carrington and D-Ann showed a block from the Donation Quilt and said it would be finished in a week or so. The Walker County Fair was discussed (April 9), and all members were encouraged to enter.

The February Meeting will feature Becky Goldsmith with Piece of Cake. She will host a workshop on Tuesday, February 4th.

Tasha Fry hosted Show and Tell.

The Executive Board meeting will be Monday, January 13 at 5:30 at Fabric Carousel.

There being no further business, the meeting was adjourned.

Respectfully Submitted,
Maggie Smith, Secretary

MEALS on WHEELS SANTA UPDATE!

Thank you, thank you, thank you, to those “special” ladies who performed a “herculean” effort to complete 204 Log cabin Santas for our Meals on Wheels Christmas project. Words cannot express my appreciation for your love and devotion to this project, especially those of you who attended our workshop and those of you who took the pattern home to complete numerous Santas. One hundred and sixty-four (164) Santas atop a “Blissful Apple & Cinnamon” Renuzit were distributed to all participants in the Walker County Meals on Wheels program. Each packet included a candy cane, as well as the following note:

JESUS LOVES YOU!

And so do we

With from
The Tall Pines Quilt Guild
Huntsville, Texas

Also included were “hand-made” Christmas cards from the Walker County 4-H Quilt Club, led by TPQG member - Rhonda Lynch. This group made enough cards to distribute to all of our MOW members. Each card had a tree made with fabric scraps and it was amazing to see the unique ideas presented by these young quilters. Great job!

These little “remembrances” to the homebound members of our community, brought great joy. Santas were also given to the Senior Center Director, the Meals on Wheels Coordinator, the Meals on Wheels Head cook, assistant cook, and the to the volunteer dishwasher. I had originally intended to take the remainder of the santas to a local nursing home, but unfortunately because of some personal health issues I was unable to do so. There was an inquiry from a member of the community, to find out if we would “sell” these santas, of course this was not feasible this year. Perhaps we can use the remainder for our “Fair on the Square” sale next year. Again – thank you. I know this little gift meant a great deal to those who received them. May God Bless all of you who participated in this project.

By-laws Revision

A small committee met to review and make recommendations for revisions to the By-laws of the guild. Several items were determined to no longer be necessary for the guild's operation and the committee's recommendation was to delete or revise them to reflect our current needs. The revised By-laws are attached for your review. The parts recommended to be deleted are in blue type and the revisions/new portions are in red type. Please read the By-laws and we will vote at the February meeting on the adoption of the recommended changes

TALL PINES QUILT GUILD BY-LAWS

Article I – Name

The name of this organization is Tall Pines Quilt Guild (hereafter, the Guild), a non-profit organization. The principle office of the Guild is in Huntsville, Walker County, Texas.

Article II – 501 (c) (3) Requirements

- A. Said organization is organized exclusively for charitable, religious, educational and scientific purposes, including, for such purposes, the making of distributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code.
- B. No part of the net earnings of the organizations shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to its members, trustees, officers, or other private persons, except that the organizations shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payment and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in the purpose clause hereof. No substantial part of the activities of the organization shall be carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the organizations shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing of distributions of statements) any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office. Notwithstanding any other provision of this document, the organization shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by an organization exempt from federal income tax under section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or (b) by an organization, contributions to which are deductible under section 170 (c) (2) of the Internal Revenue Code or corresponding section of any future federal tax code.
- C. Upon the dissolution of the organization, assets shall be distributed for one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of federal tax code, or shall be distributed by the federal government, or to a state or local government, for a public purpose. Any such assets not disposed of shall be disposed of by the Court of Common Pleas of the county in which the principal office of the organization is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations, as said Court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.

Article III – Purpose

The purpose of this organization is to:

- foster appreciation of quilts and quilting among both quilters and the public;
- to increase knowledge of traditional and contemporary techniques of quilting;
- to provide an encouraging environment for quilters to practice and exchange ideas;
- to educate the public about the significance and history of quilting as an art form;
- to preserve this rich heritage of quilting for future generations.

Article IV – Membership

Membership is open to any individual who has an interest in quilts.

Anyone may attend two (2) meetings before joining but will be required to pay the appropriate dues before attending further meetings.

Members are required to pay annual dues in the amount to be recommended each year by the board in November. Members whose dues are not paid by the February meeting are not in good standing and will not receive further newsletters until their dues are paid in full for the entire year. New members joining after June will pay 1/2 of the annual dues for the remainder of their first year. Members over seventy (70) years of age shall pay annual dues at a reduced rate. Junior memberships are open to those up to eighteen (18) years of age.

Bee News

Charity Bee

For the Food Bank at the January 2020 guild meeting, we collected $43! This is a GREAT start for this new year. Last January's collection was $33. If this continues each month, we will reach and surpass $500! Charity Bee kicks off the new year with our first work day on Tuesday, January 21, beginning at 9:30 at Fabric Carousel. I hope your New Year's resolution is to do more charitable work and I hope Charity Bee will be a recipient of those efforts. As I said in the December 2019 newsletter, we had to drop one of our longtime HUG recipients due to lack of participation. And as we heard at the January 2020 guild meeting, The Care Center has a huge need for our beautiful HUGs, as well as baby bibs, burp cloths, receiving blankets, crocheted beanies, and any other items needed by those parents who choose to keep their babies. In addition, the local nursing homes really appreciate and need walker caddies. PLEA: It has been Barbara Pearson's main mission for many years to cut out, sew, and deliver countless walker caddies. She desperately needs help with making walker caddies. Barbara (or I) will be happy to train you on any part of the simple process you are able to help with, and this work can be done at Charity Bee or in your own home at your own pace. Let's ALL step up this year and do at least one Charity Bee project and help make this year better than ever for our recipients: The Care Center, SAAFE House, Hospitality House, and local nursing homes. We hope to see you at Bee on the 21st, but really, you can do YOUR part at home if you're unable to attend Bee at any one of the ELEVEN meetings this year. For information/questions, please contact Robin Rodriguez.

Cut-ups

Cut Ups will meet on the 2nd and 4th Friday each month at the Fabric Carousel. All are Welcome. Bring your quilting problems for lots of advice and help from your friends. Bee starts around 10 and lasts all day.

Embroidery Bee

We meet on the third Saturday of the month at 11 AM, at the Ohendalski building, next door to the Chicken place across from the mall. 1425 Brazos Dr. Contact Susan Craig for info.
